

MV EASTBANK

A Fine Painting

Bank Line's MV Eastbank - Compass Class

Built in 1947 by Wm. Doxford and Sons Ltd., Pallion.

GRT 5947 DWT 9325 LOA/BM 440/60 ft

This was one of several vessels known as the "Compass Class" and was mainly engaged in the Pacific Islands Copra Trade. They were very popular ships to serve on. The "Eastbank" was on sold to other interests for continued trading in 1965, and finally went for demolition at La Spezia in 1980

Courtesy: Junglecat.de